

HOME SCHOOL STUDENTS

Home School Students have completed a home school program and have earned a home school diploma. Home-schooled students must be of school age.

Procedural guidelines for home-schooled students include:

- Show proof of studies, including the curriculum followed by the home-schooled student

-or-

- An official home school transcript signed by the parent or high school principal designee.
- Additional supporting documentation may be required for admissions.

Note: Laredo College will review all homeschool transcripts from third-party online homeschools or home-school organizations for approval. Home-School students may also take part in the Dual Enrollment program. Dual Enrollment students will be required to submit additional supporting documentation, see Dual Enrollment/Dual Credit student.
