

FREN - FRENCH

FREN 1300 Conversational French I 3 Credit Hours (3 Lec)

This course is an introduction to French Language through basic practice in comprehension and production of the spoken language. Everyday situations, functional communicational approach.

FREN 1411 Beginning French I 4 Credit Hours (3 Lec, 2 Lab)

Drill in pronunciation and aural comprehension; vocabulary development, dictation and spoken exercises designed to teach the essentials of grammar; simple readings and conversation on the student's level. Lab required. Fall Semester only.

FREN 1412 Beginning French II 4 Credit Hours (3 Lec, 2 Lab)

Study of grammar continued; composition and conversation in French. Lab required. Spring Semester only. Prerequisite: FREN 1411 or consent of the department chairperson.

FREN 2311 Intermediate French I 3 Credit Hours (3 Lec)

Review of grammar; basic composition, conversation, and idioms, reading of not too difficult French in a selection of stories, essays, and plays. Fall Semester only. Prerequisite: FREN 1412 or equivalent.

FREN 2312 Intermediate French II 3 Credit Hours (3 Lec)

A general reading course with practice in basic composition and conversation based on the reading of representative literary works of modern French authors and poets. Spring Semester only. Prerequisite: FREN 2311 or equivalent.