

EDUCATIONAL LOANS

Laredo College does not participate in the federal William D. Ford Direct Loan Program, state, or private student loan programs as of Fall 2012.

Federal Loan Exit Counseling

Students who have borrowed federal educational loans must complete exit counseling to remain compliant with federal funding requirements. For more information about student loans, repayment options, or to complete exit counseling, visit www.studentloans.gov (<http://www.studentloans.gov>) or www.studentaid.gov (<http://www.studentaid.gov>).

Loan Science Support Services

Laredo College partners with Loan Science to assist students in managing their federal student loan repayment. Loan Science provides guidance during grace periods and repayment, helping students navigate concerns, understand repayment options, and identify their loan servicers.

Benefits of Loan Science Services

- Frequent contact and personalized assistance for borrowers.
- Analytics-driven outreach tailored to at-risk populations.
- Expertise in default prevention and compliance with federal regulations.
