

OFFICIAL NOTIFICATIONS AND COMMUNICATION WITH STUDENTS

Laredo College communicates officially with students exclusively through electronic email notifications. Students are responsible for regularly checking their official Laredo College email accounts to stay informed about critical information, including financial aid awards, grades, transcript holds, student account details, and other important updates. Students must log in to their PASPort accounts to access these communications, available at <https://passport.laredo.edu/>.